SMITH &amp; WESSON PEACE

Even a despicable truce is better than a war in which the Czechs would lose no matter who were the victors, and you can find plenty of Washington higher-ups who are happy that the European showdown has been postponed until John Bull and La Belle France can outmatch Hitler and Mussolini in war preparedness. But nobody is convinced that the trouble is over over there. Europe's history is the history of broken pacts and violated treaties.

Rather than take the 100-to-1 shot that Hitler was pulling a grandiose bluff, the other powers wisely took realistic steps for effecting at least a temporary settlement; with them, and for them, the world hopes for the best. They may or may not have overlooked the all-important fact that Hitler cannot long hold his Nazi mobsters under personal control — unless he can and does continually promise them new enemies, real or imaginary, to fight, and other worlds to conquer. And they may or may not have disregarded that other bomb, Konrad Henlein. Henlein hates the Benes regime, and anything short of massacre for the loyal Czechs who conspired in blocking fulfillment of his vaulting ambitions will leave him a thwarted and disappointed man. His craving for revenge remains an open powder keg, and the fact that he still cherishes the hope of becoming a dictator in his own right may make Henlein the prelude to defeat for the Smith & Wesson pact so recently composed in Munich.

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN

Now, because even an idiot is dangerous when he carries a cannon, the Czech's country will be carved and fed to the maniacal dogs of war. Artistic sleight done by careful and expert hands may be less revolting than dismemberment by violence, but the following of unprincipled principles will be found unproductive of lasting peace.

Factual peace will not come to Europe so long as two-legged skunks like Hitler man the controls. They are still carrying dynamite in all their pockets, and at any moment the explosion may even reach and rock this country. We MUST stay out at all costs, but we won't. This whole country hates war. President Roosevelt and our State Department are determined to keep "hands off," and we the people will sincerely support this policy — until it touches our pocketbooks or patriotism. We may spend long periods on knees praying for peace, then get up from our prayers looking for someone to fight. Admitting that plenty of dangerous potentialities still adorn the world's political landscape, the dominating resolution of the hour is to keep this country out of any foreign mess, but the eternal question is how to do it. Should war break out over there, 130 million free-thinking, free-talking, free-determining people in America will refuse to be controlled in their thinking, talking and determining. So what? We are going to do as we darn please, whether or not we do it wisely.

To more vividly emphasize the presence of danger bombs lurking around for us, just waiting for somebody to light the fuse, let us consider, for example, a recent news dispatch from Prague. During the late frenzied crisis, we had a bulletin stating in effect that American citizens seeking to flee the Czech territory were stopped at the German border by threats of arrest and detention in Nazi concentration camps. The report may or may not have been authentic, but such incidents do occur in war. Don't take our word for it, just picture for yourself the brand and hysteria this country would take on if, perchance, a few U. S. citizens were held prisoners by Hitler. The fact that Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Citizen violated, knowingly or not, some military proclamation would have not the slightest effect against the collective high jinks of over 100 million Americans who were spoiling for a fight.

ROOSEVELT'S BID

In the noise and shouting, President Roosevelt's first one-man peace parley went almost unheard for the moment. His second cablegram to Hitler fared much better, and the bluffing, Nazi chieftain, who was looking for a way to save his pants anyhow, grabbed it as a face-saving alibi. The world owes Roosevelt and Chamberlain a big debt. Hitler had our President's first message long before he mounted the speaker's rostrum in Berlin, but the cagey Nazi made no reference to it. Why? The German masses are being left in the dark as to the real facts. Hitler's only hope of keeping them willing to follow and fight when he says fight is to withhold from them all such bothersome details as world opposition, and the grim determination of the two great European democracies and Russia to fight it out over the in-

$99,851 Improvement In Water District Planned

DIAMOND RIDGE DITCH TO BE PURCHASED FOR SYSTEM

Establishment Of SRA Camp With Payroll Of $8,000 Monthly Included In Program For Rehabilitation Of Ditches; U. S. Funds Supply 80 Per Cent Of Total Estimated Cost

The Board of Directors of El Dorado Irrigation District at their regular October meeting on Tuesday received the "go ahead" signal on their $99,851 improvement project.

The undertaking, which involves the purchase of the Diamond Ridge and its rehabilitation, together with rebuilding of ditches throughout the system all ready existing in the district, is made possible by a federal Works Progress Administration grant in the amount of $79,729 representing eighty per cent of the cost of the project. The district will supply the balance of $20,122 and there will be no increase in district taxes.

WPA labor will be used on the project and this involves the establishment of an SRA camp in the Placerville vicinity. Site for the camp is to be obtained by the irrigation district and Dr. W. A. Rantz, chairman of the board, and Engineer Fred N. Hosking have been appointed as a committee of two to obtain a ten-acre tract on which the SRA will erect suitable improvements for a permanent camp of 200 men.

Such a camp, under present WPA wage schedules, will provide a monthly payroll of $8,000 exclusive of expenditures for camp maintenance.

Final approval of the project was received by the board Tuesday in the form of a letter from Nils Aamonsen, Northern California WPA supervisor at Sacramento, which announced final presidential approval of the undertaking for which the initial application was filed on June 17th.

In anticipation of this action, the

Czech President Resigns Post

Premier Heads Government Temporarily As London Hears Of Army Suicides

PRAGUE, (AP) — President Edouard Benes resigned today after a losing fight to prevent German absorption of the Sudeten area of Czechoslovakia.

The government was left for the time being in the hands of Premier Jan Syrový, one eyed world war hero, at the head of a reconstructed cabinet in which the Slovakian minority of the partly dismembered republic has been given stronger representation.

Benes had been president of Czechoslovakia since December, 1935.

SUICIDES GAIN

LONDON, (AP) — The News Chronicle, in a dispatch from Prague, reported that numerous officers and men of the Czechoslovakia army had committed suicide as the result of the country's dismemberment. The suicides occurred in southeast Czechoslovakia, the dispatch said, where four officers shot themselves in one day at one town.

NEEDLECRAFT AWARDS TOLD

County Fair Directors Create Class For Crocheting And For Quilts; Ribbons Offered

Due to insistent demands the Fair Board has set up a premium list for crocheting, embroidery and quilting work. This year the classifications are necessarily limited but it is hoped to develop this part of the fair for the future. Chairman Faugstad, who visited the Los Angeles and other fairs, states that undoubtedly El Dorado County can make the finest showing of quilts in the state both from an historic and artistic standpoint.

The articles entered in the crocheting department will also be eligible for prizes in the National Crochet Contest to be held in New York when $1200 will be distributed. Local merchants have donated prizes for the local crocheting show. Those contributing to date are W. J. Anderson, Albert Simon and the Cash Mercantile Store.

Ribbons will be awarded in the other classes which are listed below. This year the board has set up open classes which will allow various entries such as knit, embroidery, etc., in one group. It is expected that the quilt show will be outstanding as El Dorado county is famous for its wonderful quilts. The class for ladies over 70 years should be

EXHIBITION FOOTBALL GAME PLANNED FOR COUNTY FAIR

Soccer football enthusiasts of the county are planning to stage an exhibition game at the County Fair on Friday night, October 14, beginning at 7 o'clock and have named Aubrey Warren, Henry Lefevre and Wallace Ripley as a committee on arrangements.

John H. Palmer and Coach L. A. Brown have consented to act as officials and teams are being lined up. Although the game is a well-known sport in larger cities, it has never been played generally in the county and the committee feels that an exhibition game may be of general interest and may, possibly, help to establish the game locally.

Among those who have indicated their intention to take part in the exhibition game are, Aubrey Warren, Ed. Reeder, Kenneth McCoy, Wallace Ripley, Jr., Louis Neil, Henry Lefevre, Ernest Oppenheimer, Norman Robotham, William Krause, Clayton Herbert, A. H. Murray, H. V. Wotton, Dick Patterson, Bob Reeder, Drew Rossi, Bernie Edelman, Stanley Barker, Clint Gardner, Walter Drysdale, Lowell McDowell, Cotton Nordyke, Elzear Des Jardins, L. Reeder, Jack Landis and Charles W. Doe.

Curtis M. Rocca, of Echo Lakes, was a visitor in the county seat on Wednesday attending to business matters.

"FLASH" GORDON, second baseman for the Yankees, playing his first world's series game today, who tapped out a single to score Bill Dickey and put his team ahead in the opening game of the annual baseball classic.

BILL LEE BOWS TO RUFFING IN FIRST SERIES GAME

Yankee Second Baseman Puts American Leaguers Ahead With Slashing Single In First Time At Bat In His First World Series Game; Cubs Score In Third

CHICAGO, (AP) — Young Joe Gordon stepped up to the plate first his first time at bat in his first world's series game and slashed a single down the third base line to put the Yankees ahead in today's opening game of their world series with the Chicago Cubs. The final score was 3 to 1.

Gordon's hit came in the second inning and scored Bill Dickey, who had reached third on a single and an error by Herman, the Cub second sacker.

Gehrig, who previously had walked, had scored on Dickey's hit.

The Yankees added their final run in the sixth when Henrich doubled to score on Dickey's single.

The only Cub score came in the third inning when Collins singled, moved along on a sacrifice and scored on Hack's bingle.

JAS. MORTIMER LOST 72 HOURS

Posse Wednesday Covering Larger Area In Search For Missing Hunter

Missing more than seventy-two hours, the whereabouts of James Mortimer, son of Mrs. Anne Mortimer, of Placerville, and husband of Mrs. Dossie Denman Mortimer, became more and more a puzzle to authorities Wednesday.

The young man, employed at the Union Oil Company service station in Placerville, went deer hunting in the Cat Creek area above Caldor Sunday with Dr. William Schneider, Bill Cooper and Bernt Chappell, and became lost.

Search was instituted Sunday afternoon and took on an intensive scale Monday morning and although the area into which he was supposed to have gone was combed thoroughly Tuesday, no trace of him was found.

The hunt, conducted by Caldor CCC enrollees, forest officers, relatives and other friends, was so thorough that the searchers found articles which had been lost by other hunters in the area, such as handkerchiefs. However, these were all traced to their owners and none of them was identified as belonging to Mortimer.

Wednesday morning the posse, operating under the direction of Ranger George B. Young, started out to search out from the area combed Tuesday. The main body of 52 CCC enrollees with their ten foremen were operating as a single party while forest service officers led by Supervisor Edwin F. Smith, organized smaller searching parties.

Fire Prevention Week Oct. 10

Placerville Lions Join Clubs Of Nation In Urging Clean-Up Of Hazards Around Home

Co-operation of the people of Placerville and vicinity in the elimination of fire hazards around their homes as a feature of Fire Prevention Week, opening October 10, was asked in a statement released Wednesday by H. E. Dillinger, president of the Lions Club, as follows:

"The week of October 10 to 15 is Fire Prevention Week. Lions Clubs all over the nation are observing it with special programs, and your local club invites the people of Placerville and vicinity to cooperate.

"You can assist by checking up on all fire hazards, cleaning up all rubbish piles into which a match or cigarette might drop, chacking your ash cans, flues, stove pipe and chimneys in readiness for winter. Check your wiring and appliances, warn the children about leaving electric irons turned on. Report bad hazards to the fire department or city marshall, keep matches in safe places, and be careful with cigarettes.

"Fire, when uncontrolled, is one of mankind's greatest scourges, but by giving a little concerted thought and effort to it, we can greatly reduce fire losses. Now is a good time. Let's do it."

Lion officers announced that the club's meeting on Tuesday next will be an evening occasion and all members of the club are asked to report at the fire house at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening to join the firemen in a parade through Main Street, which will be followed by the club meeting.

Foresters Give Party For Softballers

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

Tillie, Polly, and Sadie may win the 1938 world series for the Chicago Cubs. These three, who right now are busy down in Arkansas scratching fleas, may result in the overthrow of the New York Yankees. The team that is rated by many baseball pedants as the greatest ever assembled.

Tillie, Polly, and Sadie are girl bud dogs, and the fact that they perhaps hold the key to the series was unearthed by this reporter seeking information on the series. I approached Bill Dickey, who was sitting quietly in a corner of the club car. His face was a picture of worry, and this pleased me because I figured that he was checking on the strength and weakness of the Chicago lineup.

But Harriet Dean, Collins and the rest of the Cubs were far from the mind of the Yanks' catcher. His thoughts were all with Tillie, Polly and Sadie, his best three hunting dogs, over whose flagstaff tails he has bagged many a drumming quail.

"They're ailing," Bill said in a drawl thick enough to skate on. "they're ailing sho' nuff. I got a letter today that said Tillie and Polly were barely able to drag themselves about, and that Sadie wasn't nowhere near herself. Last time I saw 'em they were spry as crickets and could out range any three dogs in Arkansas."

I tried to bring the subject around to baseball by asking Bill now he figured Dizzy Dean would go against the Yanks with a slow ball and a change of pace.

"Boy, I sho' hope those dogs come around. Quail are gonna be thicker than watermelon seeds this year. I know one place I can raise ten coveys in two hours, and right next to that farm is another one where, if the fellow who runs it will let us shoot and not argue that he needs the quail to kill the potatta bugs. I can get the limit before noon."

"Who do you think is the most dangerous hitter on the Cubs?" I asked.

"Huh! I guess I'll have to do a lot of turkey shooting if Polly and those other dogs are still doing poorly when the season opens. That turkey shooting it all right, but it ain't much run unless you call your own gobblers. Do you know what I call 'em with?"

I said, no, I don't know what he called turkeys with, but who did he think McCarthy would start in the first game.

"You won't believe me when I tell you what I call turkeys with, but I use a rubber band. Just stretch it across my mouth and sorta blow on it. You'd swear it was a gobbler gobbling. They are the smartest things that fly, those old wild turkeys. They keep their head turned when they're flying away to see if the hunter is following 'em."

"I used to use a leaf to call turkeys with until I happened to discover that a rubber band was better."

I tried again to get on baseball, this time with a question concerning how many games Bill thought it would go.

"It ain't like Polly to be sick. I raised her from a pup and she's been sound as a hickory stump until this time. And can she find those birds? Boy, those quail could wear false beards and still she'd root 'em out."

Still trying to get in a word about baseball, I asked Bill how it would feel to see Tony Lazzeri on the other side.

"If those three dogs stay sick I reckon I'll get in a lot of dove shooting. Ever shoot doves? Fly like hell when they're scared, but all you got to do is learn to lead 'em a bit. Good eatin' too. Not like quail, but nothin' a fellow would turn down."

I gave up at this point.

day-in-and-day-out job, yet the most important business in the world. Just as men have their annual conventions, where they listed to lectures from specialists, local women will have their convention to consider home-making problems.

Just as fresh inspiration for the old job is one of the by-products of the familiar cooking school, which presents a lecture in a model kitchen, so are new ideas and keen incentive born in the film class for home-makers, with its novel approach and modern setting.

No "false-front" camera-beautiful kitchens satisfied these specialists. They insisted on working in complete, compact, modern kitchens, which actually reflect more scientific ingenuity and careful planning than any living room.

Not only does this picture show new dishes, styles, and interesting ways to serve everyday meals and party feasts, but it demonstrates how to make intelligent use of the ingenious mechanical servants that take the guess work out of house work.

What about recipes? Naturally every guest of the Mountain Democrat will want to test these tantalizing cures for menu monotony. Free recipe sheets will be distributed daily. And other things will be given away—valuable gifts that will find long and useful life in many a home.

Guests at the school will want to meet and remember the friendly local firms and nationally-known products that are helping the Mountain Democrat in this community. Participating in the cooking school are:

National Manufacturers of Spry, Lux, Rinso, Lifebuoy, Lux Toilet Soap; Pillsbury Best Flour, SnoSheen Cake Flour; Bananas; Kraft Dinner, Kraft Velveta, Miracle Whip Salad Dressing; Aunt Jemima Ready-Mix, Mother Oats; Lip-ton's Tea; Frigidaire Refrigerators. Free samples of foods each day!

Placerville merchants co-operating and the prizes given by each are as follows: Pioneer Grocery and Market, $2 merchandise order; May Plumbing Shop, $2.50 merchandise order; Wm. J. Andersen, pair of Indianhead linen-like sheets, value $3.25; Green Line Food Store, $2.50 basket of groceries; Furniture Exchange, Coleman automatic waffle iron; Camino Truck Service,

$2.50 merchandise order; Kelly's Grocery and Market, $3.00 merchandise order; J. H. Quigley's Grocery, $3.00 merchandise order; McHale Credit Jeweler, ladies gold wrist watch; The Sportsman's Shop, 8 cup G-E Electric Coffee maker; J. H. "Jack" Rhodes, Philco table model radio, value $14.95; Cash Mercantile Store Company, 70x80 part wool double blanket, value $5.00; Leo C. Burger, Jeweler, fustoria torte plate; Raley's Drive-In Market, $4.50 merchandise orders good in any department; Pino Vista Dairy.

Does your house run you? If so, why not accept the Mountain Democrat invitation to join the neighborly cooking school party, starting Thursday, October 13 at 1:30 p. m. in the Empire theater.

Remember the dates and opening hour: Two afternoons, from 1:30 until 3:30 Thursday and Friday, October 13-14.

Water District Maps Project

district had filed before the state railroad commission a notice of its intention to purchase the Diamond Ridge Ditch and a hearing was held Wednesday of last week in Placerville.

There were no protests to the proposed purchase filed and it was indicated that approval of the purchase will be issued by the railroad commission, possibly before the end of this week.

The purchase price upon which the district and the Diamond Ridge Water Company, of which Charles Doe is president, have agreed is $3,232.

Engineer Hosking said that a large part of the project will be the rehabilitation of this ditch including the repair of dams on Camp Creek, rebuilding about two miles of flume and cleaning about 32 miles of ditch. Another phase of the work will be the improvement of existing ditches within the district.

"Of course," said Mr. Hosking, "all users on the Diamond Ditch will be served by the district."

"The project," he declared, "is ready to go as soon as the site for the SRA camp is selected and approved and the camp is built."

Sven Nelots has been appointed as Superintendent of the camp.

SUPERVISORS ENDORSE SUGGESTED HIGHWAY BUILDING PROGRAM

The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Supervisors for the month of October, held Monday and Tuesday, show that the board by resolution endorsed the suggested program for highway improvement on U. S. Route 50 which the chamber of commerce will present to the state highway commission at a hearing on Friday.

The plan asks for (1) reconstruction between El Dorado and the western county line; (2) Improvement between Tamarack Flat and Pierce's Camp; and (3) Improvement of the Fresh Pond hill.

Other action of the board included instruction to the auditor to pay to the Sacramento-Tahoe Region Exposition Commission $225 representing 15 per cent of this county's proportion for an exhibit at the 1939 world's fair. Other counties participating under this heading include Sierra, Solano, Yolo, Sacramento, Placer and Alpine.

The board also instructed Engineer Don M. Hoffman to prepare plans and specifications looking to the improvement of the cable bridge across the American River in the Mosquito district.

Firemen were called to Upper Placerville Tuesday about 11 o'clock to extinguish a grass fire. There was no damage.

TRIANGLE DRAMA ENDS ON EMPIRE SCREEN TONIGHT

The age-old triangle of a man and two women still finds novel and up-to-the-minute treatment in "Woman Against Woman," screening at the Empire Theatre for the last time tonight.

In this instance the man, Herbert Marshall, is a husband, and the women, Virginia Bruce and Mary Astor, are his second and first wives, respectively, with the first determined that his marriage to the second shall not be a success. In the hands of this trio the story takes on telling conviction, with Marshall turning in a performance that rivals that of his father role in "Mad About Music."

Miss Bruce is more charming than ever and continues the steady dramatic advance she evidenced in "The First Hundred Years," and Miss Astor gives a skillful interpretation of a most unsympathetic role.

Charles Mayhew Hurt In Auto Wreck

Charles Mayhew, of Clarksville, suffered broken ribs and a fracture of his chestbone Wednesday morning when his automobile went into the ditch as he was driving in the Clarksville district.

Mr. Mayhew, who was at a loss to explain the accident, was treated at Placerville Sanatorium and afterward was able to go home.

Fresh Bartlett Advertising Is Praised By Experts

The Produce News—nationally recognized expert on the trade took occasion to praise results attained this year in the home market by the California Fresh Bartlett Industry advertising program.

"California's Bartlett Pear outlook is improving steadily," says the Produce News in a recent issue. "Increasing consumer demand has been noted, due mainly to the aggressive publicity which includes, besides newspaper announcements, the poster, 'Arriving Daily.' This is one of the most artistic and attractive samples of suggestive publicity ever put out for any fresh fruit."

After describing the "Arriving Daily" poster, the Produce News says: "There is no signature and nothing to distract one's friendly attention. The entire poster is 'suggestive' without a single discordant note so often found in such work. No single shipper or grower nor group is emphasized, the publicity being solely for the benefit of the entire Bartlett Pear Industry."

"Experts who have examined the copy agree that it is a model of simplicity and has real pulling power. It may be entered by the J. Walter Thompson Advertising Agency in the 1938 national annual contest of advertising winners."

In praising marketing plans of the industry, the trade publication tells of progress made in the home market, citing figures.

"The program is to make local consumers 'pear conscious.' California growers are waking up to the fact that, with a great market within trucking distance of packing houses, fully 80 to 85 per cent of their finest Bartletts are shipped interstate, often bringing back little above growing costs. This is proven by the 10-year average f.o.b. price to growers."

"The California Fresh Bartlett Pear Advisory Board made a fine record last year with its initial national publicity. This year, it is concentrating upon 'home publicity' with the objective of increasing consumption within the State and putting it on a permanent basis."
